MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS
Credentials will be distributed on a game-by-game basis and should be requested in writing on company letterhead by the editor or sports editor of your company. Requests should be faxed to the Mystics Communications Department and submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Press and photo credentials are issued to accredited media members and will admit the bearer to the press room, locker rooms and press seating in the arena during the designated time periods. Credentials may be picked up at the Verizon Center press gate located at the corner of 6th and G streets, two-and-a-half hours before tip-off. Credentials must be visibly worn at all times.

PRESS ROOM
The press room will be open two-and-a-half hours before game time, during and following the game. The professional intent of the press room is to provide a meeting and working place for writers, reporters, broadcasters, and game personnel. Any abuse of the press room and/or press privileges will result in forfeiture of your press pass. The working area of the press room is equipped with a fax machine, telephone, statistics, post-game quotes, and other WNBA information.

LOCKER ROOM
In accordance with WNBA policy, both the Mystics and the visiting locker rooms will be open to members of the media for a 30-minute period ending 60 minutes before the start of a game, and again after every game for a 30-minute period starting no later than 10 minutes following the end of the game. Head Coach Julie Plank will meet with the media following the game in the interview room directly next to the press room. No autographs are allowed by credentialed media. Violation of this policy will result in forfeiture of your press pass.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Limited space is available at each end of the court for both television and still photographers holding proper credentials. Photographers must stay in the designated areas and are asked to be considerate of spectators seated directly behind them.

MEALS
A meal will be served in the press room prior to each game.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS
Pregame press notes, media guides and lineup sheets will be available in the interview room prior to each game. Game statistics will be distributed to the working media during the game and will be available in the press room.

For Media Information and Services, please contact Ketsia Colimon in the Mystics Communications Department at 202.527.7535. Fax number is 202.527.7539.

LINCOLN HOLDINGS, LLC

In the spring of 1999 Lincoln Holdings, LLC purchased 100% of the Washington Capitals (held in the name of Lincoln Hockey LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Lincoln Holdings) and, together with a subsequent purchase, approximately 44% of Washington Sports and Entertainment Limited Partnership (WSELP). WSELP owns 100% of the NBA's Washington Wizards, Verizon Center and the Baltimore-Washington Ticketmaster franchise. In 2005 Lincoln Holdings purchased the WNBA's Washington Mystics from WSELP. Lincoln Holdings has a right of first refusal on the sale of any of the individual teams or other assets, as well as an option to purchase Abe Pollin's majority interest in WSELP.

All of the current partners of Lincoln Holdings are extremely active in the Washington-area business community.

Ted Leonsis, the founder, chairman and majority owner of Lincoln Holdings, LLC, is known as one of the country's premier businessmen and has held numerous leadership positions at AOL in his 15-year tenure. He is also a professional sports team owner; chairman of Clearspring Technologies, Revolution Money and SnagFilms; a film producer; a private-angel investor; an active board member; and a committed philanthropist.

Now serving as AOL's vice chairman emeritus, Leonsis is also the chairman of Clearspring Technologies, the leading provider of cross-platform widget services; Revolution Money, an innovative new Web 2.0 payment platform and credit-card service; and SnagFilms, which allows viewers to watch full-length documentary films for free online.

In addition to Lincoln Holdings, LLC, Leonsis has investments and/or sits on the board of directors for several companies, including Algentis LLC, AnimalAttraction, Beacon Capital Strategies LLC, Bridgevine Inc., Capitol Acquisition Corp., Geneva Acquisition Corp., Georgetown University, GridPoint, Launchbox Digital, Mahalo.com, MediaBank, MobilePosse, ObjectVideo, PodShow, and Qloud.

Leonsis is a recent film producer, having conceptualized and produced "Nanking," a documentary film that serves as a powerful, emotional and relevant reminder of the heartbreaking toll war takes on the innocent as it tells the story of the Japanese invasion of Nanking, China, in the early days of World War II. He is also the producer of "Kicking It," which debuted at the 2008 Sundance Film Festival. "Kicking It" aired on ESPN and Netflix, as well as in theaters via Liberation Entertainment.

Leonsis is a committed philanthropist and is very involved with numerous charities including Best Buddies, Hoop Dreams, See Forever Foundation, YouthAIDS, and others through the work of the Leonsis Foundation.

Dick Patrick, along with Ted Leonsis, is one of the original partners in Lincoln Holdings, LLC, which was formed in the spring of 1999. A mainstay for the Washington Capitals' franchise for more than two decades, the owner, president and governor continues to lead the club with his tireless effort and intense desire to continue a family tradition—engraving the Patrick name onto the Stanley Cup.

Patrick, who joined the Capitals prior to the 1982–83 season, guides the team on a daily basis and also serves as the team's representative to the NHL's Board of Governors. The former Chairman of the NHL Finance Committee, Patrick has been instrumental in the Capitals' long-term success as a franchise both on and off the ice. Patrick was a leader in the conception and development of the Kettler Capitals Iceplex, the team's state-of-the-art training center and office building that opened in 2006 in Arlington, VA.

Jack Davies was the founder and president of AOL International and now serves on the board of directors of Scholastic, the global children's publishing and media company. Prior to joining AOL in 1993, Davies was managing director of Citicorp's London-based consumer mortgage business after serving as vice president, Europe, for RCA Records. He began his career at General Electric, where he held numerous senior consumer marketing positions. Davies earned an MBA in Marketing (1973) and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science (1972) from the University of Rochester.

Active in philanthropy in the DC area, Davies serves on a number of boards, including the board and executive committee of venture philanthropy partners. In addition, he is on the board of HeadsUp, See Forever Foundation, CharityWorks, and the Washington Scholarship Fund.

Richard D. Fairbank is founder, chairman and chief executive officer of Capital One Financial Corporation, a Fortune 130 company headquartered in McLean, VA. Fairbank founded Capital One in 1988 based on his belief that the power of information, technology and testing could be harnessed to bring highly customized financial products directly to consumers. Today, Capital One is a broadly diversified financial services company and the 13th largest bank in the United States, with more than 740 locations in New York, New Jersey, Texas, and Louisiana and international businesses in the United Kingdom and Canada. Capital One offers a wide variety of financial services, including credit cards, auto loans, small business loans, home equity loans, installment loans, and deposit and savings products.

Capital One has been widely recognized for its entrepreneurial culture and people. In 2007, Capital One was named to Fortune's "100 Best Companies to Work For," Fortune's "20 Great Employers for New Grads," BusinessWeek's "Best Places to Launch a Career," Working Mother's "100 Best Companies" and DiversityInc's "Top 50 Companies for Diversity." In addition, in 2007, Fortune published its list of "Top Companies for Leaders," ranking Capital One second in North America and fifth globally.

Under Fairbank's leadership, Capital One has demonstrated a strong commitment to community engagement and volunteerism, supporting a number of area programs focused on community redevelopment and youth education, including DC Cares, the DC College Access Program and Junior Achievement. Fairbank has been recognized for his business and industry leadership, including being named "2006 Banker of the Year" by American Banker. Fairbank holds an MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business and a Bachelor's Degree in Economics from Stanford University.

Raul Fernandez is the chairman of ObjectVideo, a leading video analytics company specializing in security surveillance. He is also a special advisor to General Atlantic Partners, a growth equity firm with over $17 billion under management. Fernandez founded Proxicom, an e-business solutions company, in 1991, took it public in 1999 and sold it in 2001. Fernandez also serves on the board of Liz Claiborne, an international apparel company; TROW, a Toronto-based engineering and consulting firm; ValueOptions, the nation's largest independent behavioral health care company; and Capital Acquisition, a special purpose acquisition company.

Fernandez, a native Washingtonian, is involved with many DC-based philanthropic organizations, including serving as a founding member of Venture Philanthropy Partners and acting as a board member for DC College Access Program, DC Children's First and the National Symphony Orchestra. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Economics from the University of Maryland.

Michelle D. Freeman is the owner and active board member of the Carl M. Freeman Companies and has an intimate understanding of the company and the real estate industry from working very closely with her late husband, Josh Freeman, on many company-related matters. Freeman is a licensed real estate broker and was a leading sales associate at Sea Colony in Bethany Beach, DE, during the expansion of Sea Colony West in the 1980s and '90s. Established in 1947, the Carl M. Freeman Companies is the successful developer of award-winning residential and golf communities and neighborhood shopping centers.

Freeman is also chairman and president of the Joshua M. Freeman Foundation, created in 2007 to honor Josh's passions and interests. In addition, she is the chairman and president of the Carl M. Freeman Foundation, which has been providing grants and guidance to nonprofit organizations since 1960. Josh and Michelle were proud to be founding members of Venture Philanthropy Partners and she continues to be involved with this outstanding organization. Freeman is actively involved with the Landon School in Bethesda, MD. She also launched, owns and operates Pilot Properties, a small business that specializes in the building, rental and sale of properties on the Delaware Shore. Michelle is responsible for the management and oversight of the Freeman Family farm, a 500-acre historic property located in Gaithersburg, MD. She is the proud mother of three wonderful children.

Sheila C. Johnson, a successful entrepreneur and impassioned philanthropist, is CEO of Salamander Hospitality, LLC, overseeing a growing portfolio of luxury properties including the Woodlands Resort & Inn in Summerville, SC; Innisbrook Resort & Golf Club in Palm Harbor, FL; and Salamander Resort & Spa in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains in Middleburg, VA, which is poised to become one of the most unique retreats in the world when it opens in early 2010. Johnson is president and managing partner of the WNBA's Washington Mystics. She has long been a powerful influence in the entertainment industry as a founding partner of Black Entertainment Television (BET) and most recently as a film producer. Her film "A Powerful Noise" premiered at the 2008 Tribeca Film Festival in New York.

In 2006 Johnson was named global ambassador for CARE, a leading humanitarian organization fighting global poverty by empowering women because they have the unique power to help entire communities escape poverty. "Sheila's I Am Powerful Challenge" was instrumental in helping raise funds for CARE's important work. Johnson is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. An avid supporter of the arts and an accomplished violinist, Johnson dedicates her time to organizations that create opportunities for children to express and explore their creativity. She serves as chair of the Board of Governors of Parsons The New School for Design in New York and sits on the boards of VH1's Save the Music Foundation, Americans for the Arts, the Curry School of Education Foundation at the University of Virginia, and the University of Illinois Foundation.

Richard Kay is currently chairman of SENTRILLION Inc., a "TS" (top secret) international border and port security, information assurance and health managed services company. He is the former founder, chairman and CEO of OTG Software, a data storage software company that he founded in 1992. OTG became the leader in online data storage and access. OTG was acquired by Legato Systems in 2002 and Kay remained on the board of directors until the acquisition of Legato Systems by EMC in 2003.

Kay currently serves on the board of directors of Control Point Solutions and the University of Maryland School of Engineering. He is a special partner with ABS Capital, a multibillion-dollar equity investment firm focused on health care, IT and media companies. Kay is also an honorary member of the board of directors of Venture Philanthropy Partners. He and his family work closely with various charities.

Jeong H. Kim is the 11th president of Bell Labs, the communication industry's most heralded research organization. His background ranges from being a CEO of a high technology start-up to senior executive of a Fortune 500 corporation. Kim's early career encompassed computer design, satellite systems design and data communications and included seven years as a nuclear submarine officer in the U.S. Navy.

Kim holds a Ph.D. in Reliability Engineering from the University of Maryland, a Master's Degree in Technical Management and Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science from Johns Hopkins University. Kim currently serves on the boards of the Johns Hopkins University, Stanford University's Freeman Spogli Institute of International Studies, and Global Internet Ventures. He is a member of the National Academy of Engineering and the NASDAQ Listing and Hearing Review Council, and was named one of the 10 most influential Asian Americans in business for 2005 by the U.S. Pan Asian American Chamber.

Mark D. Lerner, representing members of the Theodore N. Lerner family, is a principal owner of the Washington Nationals baseball club and a principal of Lerner Enterprises, a Rockville, MD—based real estate development, management and investment company founded in 1952 by his father, Ted Lerner. Lerner Enterprises' development activity is mainly concentrated in the Washington, DC, metropolitan area. Some of the company's major projects include White Flint Mall; White Flint North; Washington Square at 1050 Connecticut Avenue, NW; 20 M Street, SE; the Corporate Office Centre at Tysons II; Dulles Town Center; Fallsgrove Village Center; and the Greenbelt Marriott Hotel. Lerner also has developed, and manages many residential communities in the Washington, DC area. In addition, Lerner Enterprises is a partner in Chelsea Piers, a 30-acre sports and entertainment complex located on the Hudson River in New York City.

Lerner and his family have been involved in many worthwhile causes, including the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, The George Washington University, Georgetown Day School, the Scleroderma Foundation of Greater Washington, Jewish Community Centers of Greater Washington and the District of Columbia, JCC Maccabi Games, the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, Imagination Stage, ADL in Concert against Hate, YouthAids, Juvenile Diabetes, Junior Achievement, Food and Friends, and the Washington Nationals Dream Foundation, among many others. He currently serves as a trustee of the Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington, a member of the board of Hillel at The George Washington University and the Advisory Board of Israel Bonds.

George Stamas is a senior partner of the international law firm of Kirkland & Ellis LLP. He is a venture partner of New Enterprises Associates and the former vice chairman of the board of Deutsche Banc Alex. Brown Inc. A 1973 graduate of The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, Stamas graduated in 1976 from the University of Maryland Law School and began his career as a special counsel in the Securities and Exchange Commission. He has been listed in Best Lawyers in America for many years and was previously named as one of the leading 45 lawyers in America under the age of 45 by The American Lawyer. Stamas is also a founding board member of FTI Consulting (NYSE) and of NexCen Brands (NASDAQ).

Stamas is active in numerous local and national civic affairs, and is on the board of The Shakespeare Theatre Company, Leadership 100, Caves Valley Golf Club, and the Baltimore Orioles, and is an Archon of the Order of St. Andrew.

CHAIRMAN

TED LEONSIS

Ted Leonsis is known as one of the country's premier businessmen and a pioneer in the Internet industry, holding numerous leadership positions at AOL in his 15-year tenure, including vice chairman and president, AOL Audience Business. He is a professional sports team owner; chairman of Web 2.0 start-ups SnagFilms, Clearspring Technologies and Revolution Money; a film producer; a private-angel investor; an active board member; and a committed philanthropist.

Now serving as AOL's vice chairman emeritus, Leonsis recently founded and launched SnagFilms, a Web 2.0 company that brings the best nonfiction films to a global Web audience. He is also the chairman of Clearspring Technologies, the leading provider of cross-platform widget services, as well as Revolution Money, an innovative new Web 2.0 payment platform and credit-card service. Revolution Money, formerly Gratis Card Inc., is a subsidiary of Revolution LLC, the investment company created by Steve Case.

Leonsis is the founder, chairman and majority owner of Lincoln Holdings LLC, a sports and entertainment company that holds ownership rights in several Washington, DC, entities, including 100% of the Washington Capitals and the WNBA's Washington Mystics. Lincoln Holdings also owns approximately 44% of Washington Sports and Entertainment Limited Partnership (WSELP), which owns the NBA's Washington Wizards, DC's Verizon Center and the Baltimore-Washington Ticketmaster franchise.

In addition to Lincoln Holdings, Leonsis has investments and/or sits on the board of directors for several companies: Algentis LLC, AnimalAttraction, Beacon Capital Strategies LLC, Bridgevine Inc., Capitol Acquisition Corp., Geneva Acquisition Corp., GridPoint, LaunchBox Digital, Mahalo.com, MediaBank, MobilePosse, ObjectVideo, PodShow, Qloud, SB Nation, and TidalTV. Leonsis is also on the board of directors of Georgetown University.

Leonsis is a film producer, having conceptualized and produced "Nanking," a documentary film that tells the story of the Japanese invasion of Nanking, China, in the early days of World War II. "Nanking" made its world premiere at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival, where it was awarded the Documentary Editing Award, and was released by THINKFilm in December 2007. The film aired on HBO and is available on DVD.

While at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival, Leonsis coined the phrase "filmanthropy" to describe a new category of filmmaking that sheds light on important issues around the world and activates discussion as well as new volunteers and new funds to benefit a social cause. Leonsis is also the producer of "Kicking It," another example of filmanthropy, which debuted at the 2008 Sundance Film Festival. "Kicking It" aired on ESPN and Netflix, as well as in theaters via Liberation Entertainment.

Leonsis is a committed philanthropist and is very involved with numerous charities, including Best Buddies, Hoop Dreams, See Forever Foundation, YouthAIDS, and others through the work of the Leonsis Foundation.

Early in his career Leonsis was the founder of several new media companies, including Redgate Communications Corporation, a pioneering new media company that in 1993 was the first company acquired by AOL. He was also the founder of six personal computer magazines, authored four books and worked on the introduction of the IBM PC and the Apple Macintosh. He co-invented a very successful board game, "Only in New York," and served as a marketing executive with Harris Corp. and Wang Laboratories.

He once served as mayor of Orchid, FL. Among his many honors, Leonsis has been named Washington's Businessman of the Year, a Washingtonian of the Year, one of the 20 most influential people in sports, one of America's most creative executives, and a top 10 entrepreneur of the year. Leonsis blogs daily at TedsTake.com. Originally from Brooklyn, NY, and later, Lowell, MA, he now lives in McLean, VA, and Vero Beach, FL, with his wife and two children.

PRESIDENT & MANAGING PARTNER

SHEILA C. JOHNSON

Sheila C. Johnson is a successful entrepreneur and impassioned philanthropist.

As a partner in Lincoln Holdings LLC, Ms. Johnson is the only African-American woman to have ownership in three professional sports teams: the WNBA's Washington Mystics, the NBA's Washington Wizards and the NHL's Washington Capitals. Ms. Johnson is President and Managing Partner of the Mystics.

As CEO of Salamander Hospitality, a company she founded in 2005, Ms. Johnson oversees a growing portfolio of luxury properties. Woodlands Inn, in Summerville, SC, is one of only four properties in the United States to receive the prestigious Mobil five-star rating for both lodging and dining. In 2008, Travel + Leisure selected Woodlands as the #1 hotel for service in North America and #3 in the world (it was the only U.S. hotel ranked in the top 10). In 2007, Ms. Johnson acquired Innisbrook Resort and Golf Club, a 900-acre, 72-hole resort in Innisbrook, FL, which hosts the annual PGA TOUR Transitions Championship. In 2008, the company started construction on Salamander Resort & Spa in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains in Middleburg, VA, which is poised to become one of the most unique and sought-after retreats in the world when it opens in spring 2010.

Ms. Johnson is a partner in ProJet Aviation, a comprehensive aviation service company specializing in aviation consulting, aircraft acquisitions, management, and charter services based in Winchester, VA. She is also a partner in Mistral, the makers of fine bath, body and home products.

Ms. Johnson has long been a powerful influence in the entertainment industry as a founding partner of Black Entertainment Television (BET) and most recently as a film producer. In partnership with other investors, her first film, "Kicking It," premiered at the 2008 Sundance Film Festival in Park City, UT. She served as sole executive producer on her second film, "A Powerful Noise," which premiered at the 2008 Tribeca Film Festival in New York.

In 2006, Ms. Johnson was named global ambassador for CARE, a leading humanitarian organization fighting global poverty by empowering women because they have the unique power to help entire communities escape poverty. "Sheila's I Am Powerful Challenge" was instrumental in helping raise funds for CARE's important work. Ms. Johnson is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

An avid supporter of the arts and an accomplished violinist, Ms. Johnson dedicates her time to organizations that create opportunities for children to express and explore their creativity. She serves as Chair of the Board of Governors of Parsons The New School for Design in New York and sits on the boards of VH1's Save the Music Foundation, the Tiger Woods Foundation, Americans for the Arts, the Curry School of Education Foundation at the University of Virginia, and the University of Illinois Foundation.

She received a Bachelor of Arts in music from the University of Illinois, as well as honorary degrees from numerous other institutions. Ms. Johnson lives in Middleburg, VA. She is married to the Honorable William T. Newman, Jr., and has two children.

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

GREG BIBB

Greg Bibb enters his second season at the helm of the Washington Mystics as the team's Chief Operating Officer. Bibb joined the organization on October 1, 2007. Under his leadership, the Mystics have experienced tremendous growth. During the 2008 season, the team enjoyed a 15% jump in ticket revenue as average attendance grew by over 1,300 fans per game. On the sponsorship side, the team welcomed 16 new partners and enjoyed a 26% increase in corporate sponsorship revenue during the 2008 campaign. Since October 2007, the Mystics have also constructed and moved into new headquarter offices in Verizon Center and re-launched a completely redesigned Internet property, www.washingtonmystics.com.

Bibb brings over 11 years of ticket sales, corporate sponsorship and branding experience to the Mystics. Most recently, Bibb spent two years (2005–2007) as the President of Hantz Group Sports & Entertainment where he was instrumental in the launch of the Detroit Ignition of the Major Indoor Soccer League (MISL). While leading the Ignition, Bibb served as the primary liaison to the MISL League office with membership on the MISL Management Committee as well as the MISL Marketing and Team Operations Committee. In addition, he served as the Co-Chair of the MISL Broadcast and New Media Committee.

Under his leadership, the Ignition posted the league's best record during the club's inaugural 2006–07 season, advancing to the MISL championship match while selling out 13 of 17 home games. Ignition Head Coach Mark Pulisic, Bibb's first hire for the new club, was recognized as the 2006-07 MISL Coach-of-the-Year.

Bibb has also spent time as the Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Philadelphia KiXX soccer team, overseeing all of the team's fiscal operations including budgeting, forecasting and bookkeeping. During his tenure in Philadelphia (2003–2005), the team increased its overall revenue by 40% while the summer camp program grew by over 100%. Prior to joining the KiXX, Bibb was the Director of Public and Media Relations with the MISL (2001–2003), where he helped implement and enforce communications strategy for the League and its member clubs.

A native of Hershey, PA, Bibb is an avid runner. He currently sits on the board of the Greater Washington Sports Alliance as well as Most Valuable Kids, an organization dedicated to providing sports and entertainment experiences for underprivileged and underserved children. Bibb also serves as an adjunct professor at Georgetown University where he teaches in the graduate school's sports management program. Bibb graduated Magna Cum Laude from Marist College in 1996. He and his wife currently reside in Arlington and are the proud parents of daughter Adelyn Grace.

VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

ANGELA TAYLOR

Angela Taylor was named Vice President and General Manager of the Washington Mystics on October 23, 2008. Taylor brings over 15 years of player personnel experience to the Mystics. Prior to joining the Mystics, she served as the Vice President of Business Operations for two years with the Minnesota Lynx. In her position with the Lynx, Taylor oversaw all business operations, including ticket sales, marketing, fan relations, public relations, community relations, interactive services, and corporate sponsorships. She was responsible for creating initiatives to build community awareness, marketing the Lynx brand in the Twin Cities area, and enhancing ticket sales and strategic alliances.

Prior to joining the Minnesota Lynx and Timberwolves, Taylor spent more than nine years with the WNBA League Office based in New York City, most recently as Senior Director, Player Personnel. While at the League Office, she was primarily responsible for all player-related matters and issues including collegiate and international player evaluation, player marketing, and player programs. Taylor joined the staff at the WNBA League Office in June 1997 as Coordinator, Player Personnel. She was promoted to Manager in October 1999, Senior Manager in 2002, Director in 2004, and Senior Director in 2005.

Prior to joining the WNBA League Office staff, Taylor was an assistant coach for the women's basketball teams at Stanford University, Texas A&M University, and the University of Arizona. A four-year varsity letter winner at Stanford University, Taylor helped guide the Stanford women's basketball team to two NCAA national championships (1990 and 1992), three NCAA Final Fours (1990–92), and one Sweet Sixteen appearance (1993). Additionally, as an assistant coach at Stanford, Taylor's teams went to back-to-back Final Fours in 1996 and 1997. While an assistant coach at Stanford, she had the opportunity to work with 1996 Olympic Gold Medal–winning head coach Tara VanDerveer.

In 2006, Taylor co-founded The CHANCE Foundation, an organization whose mission is to create hope and access for our nation's children through education. The CHANCE Foundation helps provide at-risk youth with the support, guidance, tools, and resources needed to navigate the college application process. Taylor's community and philanthropic activities also include serving on the board of Ronnie Lott's All-Stars Helping Kids Foundation, Foundation IX, and the YWCA of Minneapolis Board of Directors. She has also served on the board of the Stanford Athletic Department.

A native of Mountain Home, ID, Taylor graduated from Stanford University in 1993 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and earned her MBA (with an emphasis on Marketing and Management) at New York University's Stern School of Business in May 2002.

HEAD COACH

JULIE PLANK

Julie Plank was named the head coach of the Washington Mystics on November 6, 2008. Plank joined the Mystics following a season with the Minnesota Lynx, coaching Olympian Seimone Augustus and 2008 Sixth Player/Woman of the Year Candice Wiggins. Prior to joining the Lynx coaching staff, Plank spent eight years with the Indiana Fever as an assistant coach and director of scouting. There she helped lead the team to four playoff appearances, including the 2005 and 2007 Eastern Conference Finals.

Plank served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team from 1999 through the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, and helped lead the U.S. to gold medal victories in the 1999 U.S. Olympic Cup and the 2000 Olympics.

Plank began her coaching career in 1984 at Capital University in Ohio. She spent two years as an assistant coach, helping Capital to a 39-8 record (.809). Overall, she has helped three different NCAA women's basketball programs to a 343-104 record (.767).

Plank's coaching career includes spending 10 years (1986–95) alongside Tara VanDerveer at Stanford University, where she assisted the Cardinal to eight consecutive NCAA Tournaments (1988–1995), four Final Four appearances (1990–92, 1995) and two NCAA championships (1990, 1992). Plank also served as the lead assistant coach at Vanderbilt University 1997–99 and oversaw the school's recruiting and scouting efforts. In 1998, she was ranked the fifth-best NCAA Division 1 assistant coach in the nation by Women's Basketball Journal.

A native of Columbus, OH, Plank attended Ohio State University, where she was a three-year starter at point guard and helped lead the Buckeyes to a 23-5 record and the University's first Big Ten Conference women's basketball title in 1983. Plank attended Bishop Hartley High School and led her team to two Ohio state high school championships. In February 2001, the school retired her No. 13 jersey in honor of her accomplishments.

HISTORY
On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman—first president of the WNBA
Sheryl Swoope—first player signed to the WNBA
Cynthia Cooper—the league's first Most Valuable Player
Houston Comets—the first WNBA Champions
Lisa Leslie—the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/2002 vs. Miami)
Lauren Jackson—the first international player to win MVP (2007)
Candace Parker—the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)
Sylvia Fowles—the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, CA. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A GROWING GAME
The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 12 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and our league reflects this trend, featuring 23 international players from 16 countries and territories at the end of the 2008 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased 277% since 1990 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 18% since 1990 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43% since 1990 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

KEY RULES
Ball size: 28.5˝ (high school and NCAA women's)

3-point line: 20´ 6 1/4˝ (International)

Several key rule changes have been implemented over the last few seasons:

- The format of WNBA games changed to four 10-minute quarters instead of the previous two 20-minute halves.
- In addition, the 24-second shot clock replaced the previous 30-second clock. It is now reset to 14 seconds when a defensive foul or other defensive violation occurs with less than 14 seconds remaining on the shot clock. It is left unchanged when a defensive violation occurs with 14 seconds or more remaining on the shot clock.
- The backcourt rule requires offensive teams to bring the ball across the mid-court line within eight seconds rather than 10 seconds.
- The time-out rule requires officials to grant requests for a time-out (full or 20-second) by a player in the game or the head coach. Previously, only players in the game were allowed to call time-outs.
- Team rosters now consist of 11 players.

WNBA

ALL-STAR GAME

The 2009 WNBA All-Star Game will be held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, CT on Saturday, July 25. ABC will televise the game, which tips off at 3:30 p.m. ET.

In 2008, the WNBA did not hold an All-Star Game due to the month-long, mid-season break for the Summer Olympics. The league did, however, conduct its annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon in San Francisco on July 30. The luncheon, at which noted TV journalist Robin Roberts received the Inspiring Woman Award, also served as a send off for the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball team. While the entire 12-member U.S. team was comprised of WNBA players, a total of 39 current and former WNBA players dotted the rosters of 10 of the 12 countries participating in the Olympics.

The 2007 WNBA All-Star Game, the league's eighth such contest, was played in front of a sellout audience on July 15 at the Verizon Center in Washington, DC. A crowd of 19,487 fans witnessed the East defeat the West 103-99 as Cheryl Ford of the Detroit Shock clinched MVP honors. A key highlight of the All-Star festivities in 2007 was the second annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon, featuring keynote speaker and Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice.

INSPIRING WOMEN

The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family and community. Past honorees include Good Morning America's Robin Roberts, former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and the WNBA All-Decade Team.

MARKETING

The WNBA has garnered unprecedented marketing support for a women's professional sport, and enjoys long-standing partnerships with major national and international brands such as adidas, Discover Card, Gatorade, Nike, and T-Mobile. New partners in 2008 included such major companies as McDonald's, Kia Motors, IHOP, Pitney Bowes, and HP. Starwood Hotels and Resorts was announced as a partner in 2009.

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events.

Through the WNBA's extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas, the sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA—having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007—but also as the presenter of the 2007, 2008 and 2009 WNBA Drafts and in 2008 became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the Playoffs and Finals.

The 2008 season also featured the first WNBA marketing partnership in China with Peak, China's number-one domestic basketball footwear brand, following the announcement in February.

ATTENDANCE /TV RATINGS

Fueled by incoming stars Candace Parker, Sylvia Fowles and Candice Wiggins, the 2008 Draft, the most anticipated in WNBA history, drew significantly higher TV and Internet numbers. The ratings on ESPN2 were up 69% over the previous year's telecast, and viewership was up 137%. Similarly, WNBA.com shattered the all-time daily traffic record to the site during the WNBA Draft, with nearly 324,000 visits, more than doubling the previous record set during the 2007 Draft. Page views were up 127%; site visits increased 106%.

The WNBA on national television (ABC and ESPN2) finished up 19% both in ratings and viewership in 2008.

Regular season attendance in 2008 increased for the second straight season. The 2.21% increase came on the heels of a 1.68% increase in 2007. The increased attendance in 2008 also featured 46 sellouts, nearly triple the 17 registered in 2007 and double the previous record of 23 set in 2004.

Just one year earlier, total attendance for the 2007 WNBA Finals between the Phoenix Mercury and the Detroit Shock was 74,178, establishing a new all-time WNBA Finals record. In addition, Game 5's crowd of 22,076 at The Palace of Auburn Hills tied the all-time, single-game attendance record for the WNBA Finals (also set on September 16, 2003, during the 2003 WNBA Finals, Los Angeles at Detroit). In addition, the WNBA experienced double-digit increases in viewership during the 2007 postseason.

Viewers recognize ESPN2 as the television destination for the WNBA. "WNBA Tuesdays" continued throughout the 2008 season, offering fans a dedicated night to tune in and watch their favorite WNBA players.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tips off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

GLOBAL REACH

Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2008, for the second straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the 2006 total of 198 countries. Included were new television agreements in six countries: Argentina, Bulgaria, Jamaica, Pan Africa, South Korea, and China. In addition, for the third consecutive year, fans in China were able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on NBA.com/china.

WNBA rosters for the 2008 season featured 25 international players from 17 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent are the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent) and the Sacramento Monarchs' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal).

10TH ANNIVERSARY

The WNBA's 10th anniversary season, celebrated in 2006, featured significant interactivity, with fans playing a key role in selecting the league's All-Decade Team, the WNBA's Greatest Moments and the starters for the 2006 WNBA All-Star Game.

The WNBA Greatest Moment presented by AOL.com were unveiled during Game 1 of the 2006 WNBA Finals. Fans, who were able to log on to www.aol.com/wnba, voted Teresa Weatherspoon's half-court, buzzer-beater—a shot that propelled the New York Liberty to victory in Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals and on to a deciding Game 3 against the Houston Comets—as their favorite moment in the WNBA's 10-year history. Prior to that, initial voting was conducted in four distinct categories as fans voted for winners of the all-time Greatest Shot (Weatherspoon), Greatest Pass (Sue Bird of the Storm leading a fast break during the 2003 All-Star Game), Greatest Milestone (Lisa Leslie of the Sparks throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history on July 30, 2002) and Greatest Inspirational Moment (Edna Campbell of the Monarchs making a triumphant return to the court on August 13, 2002, after battling breast cancer). The winner from each comprised the final ballot.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, and Washington Mystics. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel, and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on February 28, 2008, while on October 17, 2007, Atlanta businessman J. Ronald Terwilliger was awarded an expansion franchise, the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on December 7, 2006. They joined Sheila Johnson's Washington Mystics, Michael Alter's Chicago Sky and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

The 2009 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place at the NBA Entertainment studios in Secaucus, NJ. Angel McCoughtry, Marissa Coleman and Kristi Toliver were selected as the top three overall picks.

The 2008 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place in Tampa, Florida, on April 9, marking the third straight year the draft was held immediately following the NCAA Women's Division I Championship Game and conducted in the same city as the Final Four. The Los Angeles Sparks made Candace Parker the top overall pick; Sylvia Fowles was selected second by the Chicago Sky and Candice Wiggins third by the Minnesota Lynx. For the first time in WNBA history, all five starters from one college team were selected in the draft as Parker, Alexis Hornbuckle, Shannon Bobbitt, Nicky Anosike, and Alberta Auguste— teammates on the University of Tennessee's national championship squad—were chosen. Parker would go on to be the first player to earn the WNBA's MVP award in her rookie season.

WNBA

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts, and love for the game. Tamika Catchings of the Indiana Fever won the inaugural award for the 2007 season. A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

The WNBA All-Decade Team was selected in 2006 as part of a season-long celebration of the league's 10th Anniversary. Chosen from among 30 nominees by fans, a panel of national and WNBA-market media and the league's current players and coaches, the team is comprised of the 10 best and most influential players from its first 10 years of play. Named to the team were legends and current players including Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes and Tina Thompson. Players earning honorable mention status were Ruthie Bolton, Chamique Holdsclaw, Ticha Penicheiro, Diana Taurasi, and Teresa Weatherspoon. Van Chancellor, who led the Houston Comets to consecutive WNBA championships in the league's first four seasons, was named the WNBA's Coach of Decade. Chancellor also was named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007.

Seven women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics), Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks), and Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel, and Dawn Trudeau (Seattle Storm). An eighth, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005, when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin. Williams, also African-American and a former member of the group "Destiny's Child," became the first female musician to become part-owner of a professional sports team, joining the company of Jay-Z (NBA New Jersey Nets), Usher (NBA Cleveland Cavaliers), Nelly (NBA Charlotte Bobcats), Julio Inglesias (NBA Miami Heat), and Jon Bon Jovi (AFL Philadelphia Soul).

In 2008, Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player of the Year in the same season. The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game. She also became just the second player, joining Lisa Leslie, to dunk in a WNBA game.

Also in 2008, the Detroit Shock became just the second WNBA team to win at least three titles, sweeping the San Antonio Silver Stars to win their third title in six seasons. The Houston Comets won the first four championships from 1997 to 2000.

In 2007, the Detroit Shock and Phoenix Mercury combined to score the most points in a game in WNBA Finals history during Game 1 when Detroit edged out Phoenix 108-100. The Mercury matched the Shock's output with 108 points of their own to tie the WNBA Finals record for points in a game.

In 2007, the Mercury became the first team to win the WNBA Championship on the road as they defeated the Shock in the fifth and deciding game on September 16 at The Palace of Auburn Hills.

Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks was named MVP in 2006 for the third time in her career after having also earned the honor in 2001 and 2004. Leslie joined the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes as the only players in WNBA history to capture MVP honors three times. Two players have won the award twice in a career: Houston's Cynthia Cooper (1997, 1998) and Seattle's Lauren Jackson (2003, 2007). The others to capture MVP honors are Yolanda Griffith (then with Sacramento in 1999) and Los Angeles' Candace Parker (2008, when she also became the first rookie in league history to earn the award).

Lauren Jackson (Storm) added to her illustrious career on July 27, 2007, when she became the youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point. Three days earlier, she tied the league record for points in a game (Diana Taurasi) when she poured in 47 points at Washington.

Diana Taurasi (Mercury) rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest. She became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860). She also holds the single-season mark for three-point field goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star and Finals MVP awards during the 2001 season. Leslie also became the first WNBA player to top the 5,000-point mark. Houston's Tina Thompson and Detroit's Katie Smith, respectively, became the second and third players to top the 5,000-point plateau for their WNBA career, each reaching the milestone in 2008.

Katie Smith had previously become the first player in United States women's professional basketball history to surpass the 5,000-point plateau on July 13, 2005. She has since recorded her 6,000th point on August 16, 2007. Smith's achievement includes her totals from three seasons in the ABL and her WNBA career.

Also during the 2008 season, Ticha Penicheiro of the Sacramento Monarchs became the first player to ever hand out 2,000 career assists.

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

One current head coach also has played in the WNBA: Jenny Boucek (Monarchs). In 2007, when she took over the Monarchs, Boucek became the first woman to serve in the WNBA as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

Three current head coaches have played in the NBA: Michael Cooper (Sparks), Bill Laimbeer (Shock), and Corey Gaines (Mercury)

Three current head coaches have served as assistant coaches in the NBA: Mike Thibault (Sun), Michael Cooper (Sparks) and Don Zierden (Lynx).

WNBA CARES

WNBA CARES

Through WNBA Cares, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on programs that promote a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, increase breast and women's health awareness, support youth and family development, and focus on education.

WNBA FIT

WNBA Fit encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition, and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine. The content of the program is communicated and delivered through a team of spokespeople and national and local events.

GO RED FOR WOMEN

The WNBA and the American Heart Association have formed an alliance to promote the Go Red For Women (GRFW) campaign. GRFW encourages women to learn more about heart health, and raises awareness of the risks of heart disease in women.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

For 12 years, the WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. The WNBA and its teams have raised over $2 million to aid in the fight against breast cancer.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

READ TO ACHIEVE

Read to Achieve is a year-round, league-wide initiative supported by NBA, WNBA and NBA D-League teams that promotes the values of reading and online literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community-based organizations, and the creation of Reading and Learning Centers and Reading Corners throughout the world.

JR. WNBA

By stressing fundamental skill development, teamwork, sportsmanship, and positive adult participation, the Jr. WNBA aims to develop a lifelong passion for the game of basketball by providing a support structure that not only encourages participation, but also makes the game fun and rewarding for players, coaches, officials, and parents. The Jr. WNBA believes that lessons learned on the court and off the court as a member of a team are useful in building relationships at school, home and work.

PARTNERSHIPS

In reaching our community relations goals, the WNBA is proud to partner with the following organizations:

American Cancer Society

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

NOTHING BUT NETS: SATURDAY, JUNE 20

Nothing But Nets is a campaign that strives to prevent malaria, which is the number-one killer of children in Africa. Nothing But Nets works to educate people about the importance of bed nets, which can protect children from getting malaria. The money that is raised during this event will help buy bed nets for communities and countries that have the greatest need.

AMERICAN HEART ASSOCIATION GO RED FOR WOMEN NIGHT: THURSDAY, JUNE 25

Go Red for Women fights to lower the rates of heart disease and stroke among women. By 2010, the American Heart Association hopes to reduce coronary heart disease and stroke by 25 percent. Educating women to talk with their doctors is one of the ways that the American Heart Association encourages women to learn about and combat the risks of heart disease. Go Red for Women started the National Wear Red Day, which is when Americans all over the nation wear red to show their support for women's heart disease awareness. The Mystics Go Red for Women Night will feature blood pressure screenings on the concourse and fans will receive information on heart disease from the American Heart Association.

GO GREEN NIGHT: SATURDAY, JULY 11

As part of Go Green Night the Mystics players will wear green T-shirts made of organic cotton while warming up in an effort to raise awareness about environmental issues such as conserving energy. The Mystics will also host a blue jean drive; every pair of jeans brought in will be recycled and used as insulation for those in need.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS NIGHT SPONSORED BY SIBLEY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL: SUNDAY, AUGUST 30

The WNBA's breast health awareness program strives to raise awareness while informing women about ways to fight breast cancer. Another goal of the program is to raise funds and collect donations. To date, the WNBA has raised almost $2 million for the cause. The Mystics will hold a live auction following the game featuring player uniforms, autographed shoes and balls, and other sports-related items. The proceeds will go to Sibley Memorial Hospital's Sullivan Center.

MARCH OF DIMES NIGHT: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3

March of Dimes is a nonprofit organization that tries to increase the quality of life for babies by preventing birth defects, premature birth and infant mortality. In order to accomplish these goals, March of Dimes has researchers, educators, community members, and others work together as a team.

LUPUS FOUNDATION: SUNDAY, JULY 26

Lupus is a chronic, autoimmune disease that can damage any part of the body (skin, joints and/or organs inside the body). In lupus, something goes wrong with your immune system, which is the part of the body that fights off viruses, bacteria and germs ("foreign invaders," like the flu). The Mystics participated in the Lupus Walk in April and will have information on our concourse during the season.

UNTIL THERE'S A CURE: FRIDAY, AUGUST 7TH

Until There's A Cure is an organization dedicated on educating all people about HIV/AIDS and the overwhelming need for love and compassion in fighting this pandemic. The goal is to fund prevention education, care services, and vaccine development using The Bracelet as the tool. The Bracelet will not only serve as a bridge to unite people to fight HIV/AIDS, but will help to increase awareness, compassion, understanding, and responsibility.

Through the Kitchen Door® is a nonprofit organization dedicated to empowering recent immigrant and low-income adults and at-risk youth, Through The Kitchen Door training programs are designed to enhance and support increased self-esteem, self-confidence, knowledge, and skills. Throughout the season, Mystics players will make appearances and lend their support to the organization.

WASHINGTON MYSTICS FOUNDING FANS

This commemorative display honors those individuals who have been Washington Mystics season ticket holders from the team's inaugural 1998 season through the 2009 campaign. Our Founding Fans' dedication, loyalty and unwavering belief is recognized and truly appreciated by the Mystics organization. These individuals will continue to serve as the foundation for the past, present and future success of our franchise. The Mystics are eternally grateful for their years of commitment and support.

VERIZON CENTER

Verizon Center, managed by Washington Sports & Entertainment, LP, is home to the NBA's Washington Wizards, the NHL's Washington Capitals, the WNBA's Washington Mystics, and the Georgetown Hoyas men's basketball team. Located in the heart of Chinatown in downtown Washington, DC, Verizon Center is only a few steps away from the White House and hosts more than 220 events and concerts each year.

Debuting in December of 1997, the $200 million sports and entertainment facility just celebrated its 11th anniversary having entertained over 26 million patrons with over 2,200 world-class sporting events, concerts and family shows. The arena has also become a catalyst for the downtown neighborhood by sparking a dramatic redevelopment effort to the tune of $6.2 billion.

The first and second rounds of the 2008, 2002 and 1998 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament; the 2007 and 2002 WNBA All-Star games; the 2006 Washington Regional Round of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament; the 2005 ACC Tournament; the 2003 World Figure Skating Championships; the 2001 50th NBA All-Star game; and the 1998 NHL Stanley Cup Finals are only a sample of the world-class events held during the past 11 years in the building.

Concerts and family shows have included U2, Rolling Stones, Paul McCartney, Barbra Streisand, Bon Jovi, Prince, Tim McGraw & Faith Hill, Beyonce, Christina Aguilera, Andrea Bocelli, Disney on Ice, and The Wiggles. The longest-tenured events for the building are the Harlem Globetrotters and the Washington International Horse Show.

Continuing the tradition as a downtown destination, Verizon Center recently hosted the 2009 NCAA Division I Men's Hockey Championships (Frozen Four) for the first time.

Located within the arena are 108 luxury suites and a variety of concession stands and restaurants offering menu choices from Hunan Chinatown to Papa John's pizza to Dunkin' Donuts to hot dogs and pretzels to crab cakes and deli sandwiches. Additional amenities include the private Acela Club Restaurant for club seat and suite holders, the Johnnie Walker Coaches Club for Gold VIP season ticket holders, The Player's Club (private members-only club), Dewar's 12 Clubhouse open to the public an hour before and after events, The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille, Fan Gear sporting goods store, and VIDA Fitness and Bang Salon.

EXECUTIVE SUITES/PARTY SUITE

A great way to enjoy events at Verizon Center is to entertain some friends and family or business associates in one of our 108 luxury suites. Between 18 and 22 guests can enjoy the VIP treatment as they watch over 220 sporting events and concerts held annually at Verizon Center. The luxury suites offer an exclusive membership and access to the Acela Club restaurant, premium catering and food service, early and late entry to events, and countless other amenities including a private seating area, restroom and flat-screen television.

The Crown Royal Party Suite is another exciting option for entertaining up to 99 guests at one time. Whether you're looking to entertain a group of 34, 65 or 99 guests, this is the place. Guests of the party suite have access to premium catering and food service, a private glass-enclosed suite for meetings or hospitality purposes and, most importantly, a great view for the event. Another amenity of the party suite that makes it stand out from the rest of the suites at Verizon Center is the ability to rent it out on an event-by-event basis.

HIGH-DEFINITION SCOREBOARD AND LINEAR LED BOARDS

Debuting during the 2007–2008 season, the high-definition LED scoreboard is the first true indoor high-definition scoreboard of its kind for arenas. The center-hung scoreboard exclusively features the Diamond Vision LED Fascia, corner stat displays and video boards driven by ANC Sports' patent-pending VisionSOFT operating system. Sitting at 14 feet-5 inches high x 25 feet-2 inches wide, the new scoreboard provides the highest clarity of all the action, including video playback, and exhibits over 68 billion colors. The scoreboard features four 6mm video screens, four 10mm LED video matrixes measuring 5 feet x 25 feet, and two 20mm LED rings. Over 1,000 feet of linear LED boards encompass the upper bowl of the arena, as well as 400 feet of LED boards surrounding the lower bowl of the arena with full motion signage. Four additional LED displays highlight the top corners of the arena offering animation, 3D graphics and advertisements.

LOCKER ROOMS/DRESSING ROOMS
Backstage at Verizon Center includes seven performer dressing rooms; the Wizards, Capitals, Mystics, and Hoyas locker rooms; and NBA/NHL visitors and officials locker rooms. The Wizards and Capitals locker rooms include a training room, steam room, hydrotherapy pool, team lounge, and weight room.

ACELA CLUB RESTAURANT
The Acela Club is a sophisticated and energetic restaurant available for club seat and suite holders, as well as their guests. The unique 400-seat tiered restaurant overlooks the court and the ice, and combines gourmet dining with world-class service. The Acela Club is also used for private events.

JOHNNIE WALKER COACHES CLUB
Washington Wizards, Washington Capitals, Washington Mystics, and Georgetown Hoyas Gold VIP ticket holders can enjoy the Coaches Club before, during and after games. Located on the event floor, this private lounge serves hors d'oeuvres and beverages in the perfect setting.

THE PLAYER'S CLUB
Located on the Lexus Suite Level, The Player's Club is a members-only club offering a unique blend of seating, fine dining, entertainment, and separate meeting spaces. The 5,000-square-foot space features a plush décor with lavish wood finishes inclusive of a full bar with top-shelf selections, a pool table, private chilled wine coolers, a fireplace, wireless Internet access, private restrooms, premium catering services, and leather stadium seating. Membership to the club includes year-round access to Washington Wizards, Washington Capitals, Washington Mystics, and Georgetown Hoyas games with views overlooking the court and the National Portrait Gallery located next door to Verizon Center.

DEWAR'S 12 CLUBHOUSE
The Dewar's 12 Clubhouse is located just inside Verizon Center's main lobby on F Street on the second floor. Open an hour before and an hour after events at the venue, Dewar's 12 Clubhouse offers a relaxing atmosphere for drinks, appetizers and a main course.

THE GREENE TURTLE SPORTS BAR & GRILLE
Opening the first franchise location outside of the state of Maryland in 2007 at Verizon Center, The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille is the perfect setting to catch a bite to eat and drink before, during or after a game or event at Verizon Center. Based out of Ocean City, MD, The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille offers a selection for all at an affordable price.

FAN GEAR
Fan Gear, located just inside Verizon Center's main lobby on F Street, is every patron's favorite place to shop, offering team merchandise for Verizon Center's own Washington Wizards, Washington Capitals and Washington Mystics. Merchandise can also be found for the Georgetown Hoyas men's basketball team.

VIDA FITNESS AND BANG SALON
Located at the corner of 7th and F streets, NW, VIDA Fitness is redefining fitness in Washington, DC. The perfect place to work on your mind, body and spirit to achieve a fuller and more balanced life, VIDA Fitness offers a calming and rejuvenating space that incorporates all of the senses. The 28,000-square-foot space brings state-of-the-art fitness equipment, group programming in yoga and Pilates, mixed martial arts by Team Lloyd Irvin, and endless pools. Bang Salon/Spa caps off the experience by offering cuts to color, facials to hair removal, and a head-to-toe selection of salon and spa services including Japanese soaking tubs.

PRACTICE FACILITY
The Washington Wizards and the Washington Mystics have an NBA/WNBA regulation-size practice court inside the arena where all team practices are held. Located on the event level, players have easy access to and from the court. The practice court is also used for special events such as large press conferences and receptions.
